He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit. —Titus 3:5 ESV

Today is MISSIONS SUNDAY

The one Sunday a month we remind everyone about Missions giving. Please designate on your check memo line or cash offering envelope: "Missions".

Wednesday Bible Study—6pm

"The Awe of God" study continues this week. Small meal at 5:30pm.

Section: Irresistible Holiness

Chapter 19 "Cleanse Ourselves" for this week.

If you don't delight in the fact that your Father is holy, holy, holy, then you are spiritually dead. You may be in a church. You may go to a Christian school. But if there is no delight in your soul for the holiness of God, you don't know God. You don't love God. You're out of touch with God. You're asleep to his character. —R.C. Sproul

The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever..—Psalm 19:9 NKJV

The psalmist gives two remarkable fruits of holy fear that should not be overlooked or taken lightly: cleanliness and longevity.

Therefore, having these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. —2 Corinthians 7:1 NKJV

WATER BAPTISM SERVICE LAST SUNDAY

What an honor and privileged that Shiela & Robert ask Pastor Charles to be baptized again. Shiela requested to be baptized in a creek or lake, we asked First Methodist Church Claremore, if we could use their baptism pond and prayer gardens. Weather and water temperature was perfect. Praise the Lord for what he has done with Sheila's health this year.

Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age. —Matthew 28:19-20

SUKKOT—FEAST OF TABERNACLES 2025

Sukkot, also known as the Feast of Tabernacles, begins on the 15th of Tishrei, on our Western Calendar sunset October 6 to sunset 12th, and lasts for seven days. This holiday commemorates the 40 years the Israelites spent wandering in the desert and living in temporary shelters. Families build a sukkah, a temporary hut, to eat meals and sometimes sleep under the stars, symbolizing trust in divine protection. The holiday is also a time of gratitude, celebrating the harvest and the bounty of nature.

Everyone Deserves a New Day

YOU CAN PREACH! - BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

And the Good News about the Kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world ... —Matthew 24:14 (TLB)

We are stewards of the Gospel. The power to proclaim the greatest news in Heaven or on earth was not given to the angels. It was given to redeemed men. This was addressed to humble laymen. Some think that only ministers are to preach, but that is wrong. Every Christian is to be a witness; every follower of Christ is to preach the Gospel.

We can preach by sharing our experience with others. We can preach by exalting Christ in our daily lives. Sermons which are seen are often more effective than those which are heard. The truth is: the best sermons are both heard and seen. They are a sort of audiovisual testimony. We can also preach by giving to others, so they may preach. Missionary gifts, church offerings, and charitable contributions all speak eloquently of your unselfishness and Christian generosity.

In all these things, we are partners with God. We are helping by His grace to redeem the world. God needs our time, our talents, our witnessing, and our money, today more than at any other time in history. Become a full, working partner with God.

Prayer: Wherever I go today, make me conscious of the people I meet. They need Your love. So whether I can speak of You to them, say a kind word or minister in any way, I would be like You, Lord—ever loving, ever giving.

'YOUR PRAYERS ARE WORKING': MIRACLES UNFOLDING ...

A little girl who was shot in the head on August 27 when a gunman attacked Annunciation Catholic School in Minneapolis, Minnesota, is experiencing a miraculous recovery. Sophia Forchas, 12, survived the ordeal that left two other kids dead and more than 20 injured. According to CNN, a bullet that struck her brain — yet signs of hope have emerged.

In fact, her family said in a September 22 statement released by Hennepin Healthcare that her very survival is a “miracle. Sophia is winning!” the statement opened. “Your Prayers are working.” The family expressed gratitude for the people who supported their daughter, noting that appeals to God on the child’s behalf are working. “Your prayers have been powerful,” the text continued. “Sophia surviving this horrific attack is a miracle. Her healing progress is nothing short of miraculous; an undeniable testament to the mercy and intervention of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

As the family discovers new details about what unfolded, they said these “revelations” have given insight into how she survived the unthinkable. “There are simply too many to be dismissed as coincidence,” the statement read. “God has heard our prayers and wrapped Sophia in His healing embrace.” The child continues to make “steady progress” and is showing “signs of neurological recovery,” with doctors maintaining a cautious optimism about what’s to come. She will have a long journey ahead, but the family said Sophia is “strong, brave, and unwavering.”

"It is by God's will that she has come this far," the statement continued. "We are eternally grateful to our loving Father, who hears and answers prayers."

A GoFundMe set up to support Sophia and her family has brought in nearly $1.2 million. Continue to pray for her as she heals.

Meanwhile, another student, Lydia Kaiser, 12, has returned to school after being shot in the head while protecting a friend during the rampage. "Lydia's first few days back at school have been filled up with love and lifting," Jesse Wolf, the individual organizing her GoFundMe, wrote. "She was so happy to be with her friends and teachers and get back to learning and healing in community."

Evangelicals in Office?

When President Trump returned to the White House, his message resonated with many Americans when he talked about a "revolution of common sense." Now, some conservatives want another revolution: a movement of pastors and parishioners running for political office.

What we're doing is spiritual, the byproduct is political," says David Lane, the head of the American Renewal Project. His organization has been focusing specifically on the swing state of North Carolina with the goal of convincing 500 North Carolina pastors, spiritual leaders or churchgoers to run for various positions from school board to city council to even Congress.

At a recent event in Raleigh, North Carolina, President Trump videotaped a message to pastors and their wives who assembled at the gathering. "Across the state you have inspired dozens of faith leaders to run for office and win elections and they've been winning them in droves," President Trump told the group. "I will be cheering you on as you recruit 500 church members to run for office in 2026 and 2028."

Now is the time to pray for God to guide those into running for mid-term 2026 elections. We need the people in office that God selected and can use.

It is of the Lord's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. Lamentations 3:22-23 \(KJV\)
