THE POWER OF SPEECH – BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

Submit yourselves therefore to God . . . - James 4:7

You have a tongue and a voice. These instruments of speech can be used destructively or employed constructively. You can use your tongue to slander, to gripe, to scold, to nag, and to quarrel; or you can bring it under the control of God's Spirit and make it an instrument of blessing and praise. The 20th-century version of James 3:3 says, "When we put bits into the horses' mouths to make them obey us, we control the rest of their bodies also." Just so, when we submit to the claims of Christ upon our lives, our untamed natures are brought under His control. We become meek, tamed, and "fit for the Master's service."

Prayer: I would be under Your control, Lord Jesus Christ. Take away the pride that keeps me from complete submission.

*Everything may not be perfect.
There are things that may need to change,
but you have the grace to be happy today.

GET UP AND PRAISE

*For by you I can run through a troop; by my God I can leap over a wall.
Psalms 18:29 (KJV)*

Life will throw battles at you—some expected, some completely out of the blue. David knew this better than most. He lived a life full of triumphs and tragedies, victories and defeats, highs and lows. Yet, as he looked back on his 70 years, he recognized one unchanging truth: it was God who carried him through it all.

David didn't claim the credit for himself. He didn't boast in his strength, cleverness, or strategy. He knew it wasn't the positive mindset or working harder that got him through the dark days. It was God. That same God who helped David leap over walls, both literal and metaphorical, is the same God at work in your life today.

Take a moment to reflect. Think about the battles you've faced. Bring into memory all the storms, heartbreaks, losses, addictions, failures, and fear. And yet, here you are. You made it through. Not by luck. Not by your strength. By God. Every scar, every lesson, every tear has been evidence of His faithfulness and protection.

David's life reminds us that we can celebrate even on the hardest days. Praise is not conditional. It's not limited to good circumstances. Even in the valleys, God is present. Even in the darkest nights, His light guides the way. Every mountain climbed, every wall scaled, every enemy faced—it all testifies that God's power is sufficient, and His love never fails.

Your testimony is powerful. It encourages others. By recounting what God has brought you through, you remind someone else that they, too, can endure. That's why gratitude matters, not just in easy moments, but in the storms. Say it aloud: "Through it all, God brought me through. By my God, I made it through."

Let this be your declaration today. Trust Him in the mountains and the valleys. Thank Him for the victories and the lessons in the losses. Your life, like David's, is a living song of God's faithfulness.

Prayer: Lord, Thank You for bringing me through every trial, every heartache, and every challenge. Help me to trust You more deeply with every step I take. May my life testify of Your faithfulness, and may I praise You in all circumstances, knowing that by You, I can overcome anything. In Jesus' name, amen.

The Battle is the Lord's. The Victory is You's.

READY FOR A BREAKTHROUGH - BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

*... may the God of peace ... produce in you through the power of Christ
all that is pleasing to him ... - Hebrews 13:20,21 (TLB)*

When I was a boy, radio was just coming of age. We would gather around a crude homemade set and twist the three tuning dials in an effort to establish contact with the transmitter. Often, all the sound that came out of the amplifier was the squawk of static; but we knew that somewhere out there was the unseen transmitter, and if contact was established and the dials were in adjustment, we could hear a voice loud and clear. After a long time of laborious tuning, the far distant voice would suddenly break through and a smile of triumph would illuminate the faces of all in the room. At last we were tuned in!

In the revelation that God established between Himself and us, we can find a new life and a new dimension of living, but we must “tune in.” There are higher levels of living to which we have never attained. There is peace, satisfaction, and joy that we have never experienced. God is trying to break through to us. The heavens are calling. God is speaking! Let man hear.

Prayer: Lord, help me to be so attuned to Your will that I will experience all that You so lovingly wish to bestow.

*It doesn't take much effort to do what everyone else is doing.
Dead fish can float downstream; it takes a live one to swim upstream.
It's easy to be common.
The pressure comes when you decide to be uncommon.*
