

Welcome

Sunday 10:30am & 6pm

*Coffee & Donuts Fellowship before Sunday Morning Service
Sunday Services Streamed Live*

Wednesday 6pm

NewDayClaremore.church

729 S Moretz Ave † PO Box 754 † Claremore, OK 74018-0754

Men's Breakfast & Women's Meeting

Thank you to everyone that came out yesterday for Men's Breakfast or Women's Meeting. THANK YOU Robert for cooking!

RESURRECTION POWER!

May His resurrection power renew your faith, strengthen your spirit, and fill your days with unshakable joy.

I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which He has called you, the riches of His glorious inheritance in His holy people, and His incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength He exerted when He raised Christ from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly realms, far above all rule and authority, power and dominion, and every name that is invoked, not only in the present age but also in the one to come. And God placed all things under His feet..." Ephesians 1:18-22

When Jesus rose from the dead, sin's power over you was broken. Because Jesus was resurrected and defeated the grave, you now have resurrection power. You have the power of the Holy Spirit, and no "grave" of sin can hold you down. Alcoholism, addiction, shame, self-hatred, eating disorders, and suicidal thoughts all have to bow down to the name of Jesus. There is no "grave" that can hold you. The enemy may have been telling you that this habit or destructive pattern is going to be your ending, but the devil is a liar! He knows that Jesus has already won. All you have to do is receive God's forgiveness, and you will experience His deliverance. Swallow your pride or your unbelief and give your life over to Jesus.

The father in the prodigal son story was not angry to see the rebellious son. He had been watching and waiting for him to come home. When he saw him, he ran to meet him, hugged him, and restored him as a member of his household. He had him remove his old ratty clothes and replace them with new beautiful ones. He even threw a huge party to celebrate his homecoming. Luke 15:10 tells us, "There is rejoicing in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents." When someone comes back to God, a party is thrown in Heaven. God wants to see you living your best life and He knows your best life is one lived with Him.

Psalms 16:11 says, "You make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand." If you want to live a life full of joy and freedom, follow the path to Jesus.

When we work, we work. When we pray, God works.

PRESIDENT TRUMP JOINED ‘AMERICA READS THE BIBLE’

President Donald Trump read a powerful passage of Scripture from the Oval Office as part of the “America Reads the Bible” event—placing one of the Bible’s most recognized calls to repentance and restoration at the center of a nationwide spiritual gathering.

Trump read 2 Chronicles 7:11–22 during on Tuesday, a passage intentionally reserved for him by event organizers. In this passage God’s promise that if His people humble themselves, pray, seek His face and turn from wickedness, He will hear from heaven and heal their land.

Organizers did not assign this reading randomly.

2 CORINTHIANS 1:21-22

*Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, who also has sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee.
2 Corinthians 1:21-22*

Elisha was Elijah’s successor – a man of God, handpicked by God, to do the work of God.

God commanded Elijah to anoint Elisha to be the prophet in his place (1 Kings 19:16). Elijah had no vote. Why is that important? If a man had chosen Elisha, he would have felt compelled to meet his expectations. When God picks and places someone, He anoints him to fulfill his divine destiny.

God sent Moses to anoint Joshua. God sent Samuel to anoint David. God, through Jesus Christ, chose Saul on the road to Damascus. If they would have been appointed and anointed by a mere man, they would have lived up to their human opinions and expectations.

However, they were empowered by God to do what no one else could do. When you are anointed by God, the walls of Jericho fall. You stand fearlessly in front of giants. You put pen to parchment in a prison cell to write, “In all of these things, we are more than conquerors through Christ...!”

You are appointed and anointed by God. His is the only opinion that matters. The only expectations you must meet belong to Him, and He has graciously equipped you for every good work. He has picked and positioned and prepared you!

Blessing: May the Lord bless you and keep you. May the Lord make His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you and give you His peace. You are established, anointed, and sealed by God. What a privilege to co-labor with a King!

The Bible was not given for our information but for our transformation. Dwight L Moody

JOY IN SHARING

*We ... offer our sacrifice of praise to God by telling others of the glory of his name.
Hebrews 13:15 (TLB)*

Jesus knew that one of the real tests of our yieldedness to God is our willingness to share with others. If we have no mercy toward others, that is one proof that we have never experienced God’s mercy. Emerson must have been reading the gauge of human mercy when he said, “What you are speaks so loud that I cannot hear what you say.” Satan does not care how much you theorize about Christianity, or how much you profess to know Christ. What he opposes vigorously is the way you live Christ.

Some time ago a lady wrote and said, “I am 65 years old. My children are all married, my husband is dead, and I am one of the loneliest people in all the world.” It was suggested to her that she find a way of sharing her religious faith and her material goods with those around her. She wrote a few weeks later and said, “I am the happiest woman in town. I have found a new joy and happiness in sharing with others.” That’s exactly what Jesus promised!

Prayer: There is no greater joy, Father, than sharing Your love. Help me to convey this in all my dealings with others.

THE TRUTH ABOUT GIVING GOD THE GLORY

David reflects back on his life as a warrior—but tells the story from a different angle. He places God there instead: The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer ... my shield ... and my savior (2 Samuel 22:2-3 NIV).

He recounts how it was not his own strength, but God who saved him when he was being hunted by his enemies: He parted the heavens and came down. ... He reached down from on high and took hold of me. ... He rescued me from my powerful enemy (2 Samuel 22:10, 17-18).

He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants forever (2 Samuel 22:51).

David, who at the height of his reign had become one of the most feared and respected rulers alive, attributed his success to his Creator. He remembered the God who had protected him from the lions, from Goliath, from the mad King Saul, and from the Philistines. And when he had conquered all of his enemies to ascend the throne—he returned the glory to the One who deserved it.

We can often forget who it is that gives us our success. It’s easy to turn to God when we are at our lowest—but can we do the same even after we’ve gotten everything we wanted?

When we reflect back on our lives—and especially on our achievements—let’s never forget to give glory and praise to the One who has guided us every step of the way.

Ministry Team

Pastors Charles & Tammy Wilson

(918) 633-1291 † (918) 724-7289

Charles@NewDayClaremore.church

Tammy@NewDayClaremore.church

David Channel

Associate Pastor

(918) 550-0704

David@NewDayClaremore.church