RELIGIOUS FREEDOM – BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

Fear God and honor the government. 1 Peter 2:17 (TLB)

On this Independence Day we should be on our knees thanking God for all He has given us. The United States is a country in which everyone has an equal opportunity. Thank God for a country where there is no caste or class to keep a man from going to the top. If a man has a will to work and study, he can go ahead regardless of his background. In addition, thank God, He has given us freedom of religion. Whatever you may believe, no one can close your church because your religion does not coincide with his. A few people meeting in a small, out-of-the-way shack, worshiping God as they believe in Him, have the same right to religious freedom as the people who worship God in the great cathedrals on the avenues of our greatest cities.

Prayer: Thank You, God, for allowing me to live in the greatest, grandest, and most free land the world has ever known.

ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE

Jesus looked at them and said,

"With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

Matthew 19:26, NIV

Are you facing something today that seems impossible? With man it may be, but with God, ALL things are possible. If you seem to be in an impossible situation, get "with God!" Sometimes it's so easy to focus on our problems and try to solve them in our own strength. But remember, the battle belongs to the Lord. He has a plan for your victory. He has a plan to give you a way out. He is making the things that seem impossible, possible. You can trust Him today. The Bible says that He has plans for your good, not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Start believing and confessing today, "I am with God, and with God all things are possible!" Are your bills piling up? With God, all things are possible. Do your relationships need healing? With God, all things are possible. Is there sickness in your body? With God, all things are possible! As you meditate on God's Word, His power is activated in your life. He will strengthen you and lead you forward into that place of victory He has in store for you.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for making a way where there seems to be no way. I choose to trust You, and I believe that all things are possible! Show me Your power today. Work through me to encourage those around me to trust You more in Jesus' name. Amen.

YOU ARE NOT ALONE – BY OUR OWN LAJUANA DORIS

Pastor had shared on Sunday evening June 14th from 1 Peter. Suffering may feel like a fiery furnace but it is often there that grace does its deepest work. Peter's words to a struggling church remind us that trials are not strange detours in the Christian life, they're part of the path. And on that path, we do not walk alone. When hardship comes, Peter invites us not to be surprised but to see with new eyes.

In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 1:6–7

Suffering refines our faith, revealing what's lasting and real.

...that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, Philippians 3:10

As Pastor Charles finishing preaching the Lord gave LaJuana this poem. She is only able to attend on Sunday evenings and Wednesday. LaJuana is no stranger to the Lord giving her poems in service or other times.

YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN THE FIRE! THE KING WALKS WITH YOU!

YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN ANY INFIRMITY! THE KING WALKS BESIDE YOU!

YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN THIS GRIEVING! THE KING CATCHES YOUR TEARS IN A BOTTLE!

YOU ARE NEVER ALONE! THE KING SAID I WILL NEVER LEAVE OR FORSAKE YOU!

YOUR VICTORY IS ASSURED! THE KING SAID WE WALK IN VICTORY!

1 QUESTION EVERY CHRISTIAN MUST ASK ABOUT JESUS' RETURN

How should we live if Jesus could return today?

Bestselling author and Bible teacher John Bevere urged Christians to move beyond endless prophecy debates and instead prepare their hearts for Christ's return by living in faithful obedience. Rather than encouraging believers to speculate about dates or headlines, Bevere challenge us to examine out daily walk with Christ.

"Here's what I firmly believe. I live like He's coming back today," Bevere said. "The Lord could want me home tomorrow. He could want me home tonight."

This mindset affects every area of the Christian life, including resisting temptation, pursuing holiness and keeping an eternal perspective. Have you put off the Lord's coming in your heart??"

He argues that the return of Jesus "was meant to awaken our faith, sharpen our purpose, and prepare us to stand confident at His appearing."

His message serves as a reminder that the doctrine of Christ's return is not merely about future events. It is about present obedience. For Christians, the question is not simply whether Jesus is coming again, but whether we are living in a way that reflects that we truly believe He is.

A GLOBAL BEST-SELLER—BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

His every word is a treasure of knowledge and understanding.

Proverbs 2:6 (TLB)

It is small wonder . . . the Bible has always been the world's best-seller! No other book can touch its profound wisdom, its poetic beauty, or the accuracy of its history and prophecy. Its critics who claimed it to be filled with forgery, fiction, and unfulfilled promises are finding that the difficulties lie with themselves, and not the Bible. Greater and more careful scholarship has shown that apparent contradictions were caused by incorrect translations, rather than divine inconsistencies. It was man and not the Bible that needed correcting. And yet—in many homes and among so-called educated people—it has become fashionable to joke about the Bible and to regard it more as a dust-catcher than as the living Word of God. . . . Too many families have used the Bible as a safe storage place for old letters and pressed flowers, and have overlooked entirely the help and assurance that God intended this Book to give them.

Prayer: Almighty God, I praise You for the authority of Your Word, which speaks to me of my redemption, life as it should be lived, peace and eternal life with You.
