A CLEAR MESSAGE – BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

The law of the Lord is perfect ... Psalm 19:7

The Bible is the constitution of Christianity. Just as the United States Constitution is not of any private interpretation, neither is the Bible of any private interpretation. Just as the Constitution includes all who live under its stated domain, without exception, so the Bible includes all who live under its stated domain, without exception. God's laws for the spiritual world are found in the Bible. Whatever else there may be that tells us of God, it is more clearly told in the Bible. Nature in her laws tells us of God, but the message is not too clear. It tells us nothing of the love and grace of God. Conscience, in our inmost being, does tell us of God, but the message is fragmentary. The only place we can find a clear, unmistakable message is in the Word of God, which we call the Bible.

Prayer: How I pray that the world would live by Your law—which bears no discrimination but is perfect. Teach me as I read the Bible to follow Your commandments which are not impossible to obey because of Jesus Christ's love.

CARRYING THE NAME

So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them. Numbers 6:27

In an old, historic neighborhood, a young child sat on the front porch, watching a carpenter work on the framing of a new house. The craftsman moved with steady hands, carefully measuring and cutting every piece of wood. Before he finished his work for the day, the carpenter took a small, specialized stamp and pressed it deep into the main support beam of the structure. The mark was simple, yet it carried significant weight. It declared to anyone who looked at the house that this project had been vetted, built, and secured by a master who stood behind his work. That stamp was not just a decoration. It was a seal of ownership and a promise of quality.

When we read the Aaronic blessing, we often stop after the mention of peace. We focus on the beauty of being kept and the comfort of the Lord's face shining upon us. Yet, there is a final, vital step in this ancient prayer that is frequently overlooked. This final verse reveals the purpose behind the blessing itself. God did not just want to offer protection and grace from a distance. He wanted to claim the people as His own. He commanded the priests to place His name directly onto the people, acting as a permanent, spiritual marker that changed their status forever.

This is the ultimate significance of the blessing. You are not merely a recipient of divine favors or a beneficiary of occasional help. You are marked. By receiving the blessing of the Lord, you are effectively having His name written over your life and your household. His name represents the sum of all heaven has to offer: salvation, deliverance, and infinite hope. It is the authority of the Almighty resting on your shoulder, shielding you from the enemy and aligning you with His kingdom.

Notice something happened when you speak the Lord bless you...

You put the name of the Lord on the house.

You put the name of the Lord on the recipient of the blessing.

Because you carry this name, you are never truly lost or forgotten. You are claimed by the Father who refuses to let you go. The world may try to label you with your failures, your anxieties, or your past mistakes, but those labels have no power in the presence of the Name that is above every name. When you walk into your office, your home, or your local community, you do so as a representative of the One who built you. You carry the seal of the Master Architect, and that identity is your strongest defense against the storms of life.

Putting It Into Practice - Carrying the name of the Lord means living with the awareness that you are permanently attached to His reputation and His power. It is easy to move through your day focused on the stress of your deadlines or the weight of your responsibilities, forgetting entirely who you belong to. To live in the reality of this mark, practice a simple act of repositioning your identity before you walk into any high-pressure situation.

Take a moment to pause, breathe, and silently whisper: "I am marked by His name." Let that truth replace any feelings of insecurity or fear. Visualize yourself walking into your day not as a person trying to survive, but as someone who is visibly stamped with the authority of the Creator. Do this every time you feel overwhelmed by the expectations of others, and it will remind you that you are owned and protected by the highest authority in existence.

REFLECTION - If you truly recognized that you were walking through your daily life with the name of the Lord stamped onto your soul, which specific situation or fear would lose its power over you today?

Prayer: Lord, thank You for the privilege of carrying Your name upon my life. It is an honor to be marked as Yours and to know that I am never walking through this world alone. Forgive me for the times I have let the labels of the world overshadow the truth of who I am in You. Help me to live with the confidence of someone who is claimed, protected, and fully loved by a Father who never lets go. May Your name be the source of my identity in everything I face today. Amen.

THE MEANING OF THE CROSSHAIRS SYMBOL

THE CROSS in the middle reminds us that successful prayer begins with a relationship with God through Jesus Christ and faith in His shed blood on the cross. (John 14:6; Eph. 3:12; Col. 1:15-20)

THE VERTICAL LINES in the cross, as well as above and below it, remind us to stay vertically aligned with God and His Word in prayer. (John 14:13; 15:7; 1 John 5:14)

THE HORIZONTAL LINES in the cross and on both sides remind us to stay right with others. This includes forgiving, apologizing, and also praying in agreement with others. (Matt. 5:23-24; 18:19-20; Mark 11:25)

THE INNER CIRCLE means to maintain a pure heart in prayer. When you pray, you should keep no unconfessed sin or bitterness in your heart and you should approach God humbly, repentantly, submissively, and in faith. (Ps. 66:18; Mark 11:24; James 4:7-10)

THE CROSSHAIRS remind us to aim our intercession and to pray specifically, strategically, and persistently. (Matt. 7:7-8; John 15:7; James 5:16)

PRAY FOR REVIVAL IN OUR CHURCH, CITY, STATE, REGION, AND NATION

If My people, who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray, and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.

2 Chronicles 7:14 MEV

ENCOURAGEMENT—BILLY GRAHAM DEVOTION

Looking for that blessed hope ... Titus 2:13

One of the best ways to get rid of discouragement is to remember that Christ is coming again. The most thrilling, glorious truth in all the world is the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. When we look around and see pessimism on every side, we should remember the Bible is the only Book in the world that predicts the future. The Bible is more modern than tomorrow morning's newspaper. The Bible accurately foretells the future, and it says that the consummation of all things shall be the coming again of Jesus Christ to this earth. If your life is dismal, depressed, and gloomy today, Christ can turn those dark clouds inside out. The sunlight of His love can still shine into the darkest part of your life.

Prayer: Longing to see Your face, Christ Jesus, I rejoice in the anticipation of Your coming again!
