

“You Are Not Alone” Poem

By LaJuana Doris

YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN THE FIRE!
THE KING WALKS WITH YOU!
YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN ANY INFIRMITY!
THE KING WALKS BESIDE YOU!
YOU ARE NOT ALONE IN THIS GRIEVING!
THE KING CATCHES YOUR TEARS IN A BOTTLE!
YOU ARE NEVER ALONE!
THE KING SAID I WILL NEVER LEAVE OR FORSAKE YOU!
YOUR VICTORY IS ASSURED!
THE KING SAID WE WALK IN VICTORY!

Pastor Charles had shared on Sunday evening June 14, 2026 from 1st Peter. Suffering may feel like a fiery furnace but it is often there that grace does its deepest work. Peter’s words to a struggling church remind us that trials are not strange detours in the Christian life, they’re part of the path. And on that path, we do not walk alone. When hardship comes, Peter invites us not to be surprised but to see with new eyes.

In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 1:6–7

Suffering refines our faith, revealing what’s lasting and real.

...that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, Philippians 3:10

As Pastor Charles finishing preaching the Lord gave LaJuana this poem. LaJuana is no stranger to the Lord giving her poems.
